MIDTOWN
FARMERS MARKET

OCTOBER 2026 PROGRAMING

LAST MONTH OF THE 2026 MARKET SEASON

October 3

Krishna's Delight Food Demo 10:00a–11:00a

Using local vegetables at the market, join the co-owner of Krishna's Delight for this children's cooking workshop where they'll explore new flavors through Indian cuisine.

Rene's Latin Dance 11:30a–12:30p

Joyful Grounds Cultural Series

Learn some Latin dance moves with Rene! He teaches the Cuban steps of Salsa, Cha-cha-cha, Rumba, Mambo, & other traditional Cuban rhythms.

October 10

Yoga with Joi Latson 10:00a–11:00a

Enjoy a peaceful, all abilities and all ages yoga practice with Joi Latson from 10-11a. Joi is a Black, queer yoga instructor, birth worker, and herbalist dedicated to holistic movement and wellness. She focuses on accessibility for marginalized communities. Please bring your own mat!

Urban Forage Friends 11:30a–12:30p

A group of friends who play awesome music together! Their ten-piece ensemble includes fiddle, mandolin, guitar and melodica. They play upbeat and soulful instrumental music.

October 17

Z Puppets 10:00a–11:00a

Say It! Sing It! Play It! in Cherokee is a musical adventure into the Cherokee language with a Turtle & Wabbit Grandmother Turtle is upside down. Dagsi Turtle and Jisdu Wabbit must find a way to help her get back on her feet.

Ariesfirebomb 11:30a–12:30p

A Black queer DJ from Indianapolis taking the sounds of the diaspora from the Midwest to the world.

October 24

Two Piece Suite 10:00a–11:00a

Two Peace Suite is an acoustic duo with Beth Gillman on lead vocals, ukulele and percussion; and Denny Olsen on guitar and vocals. We play Americana, rock, and blues music.

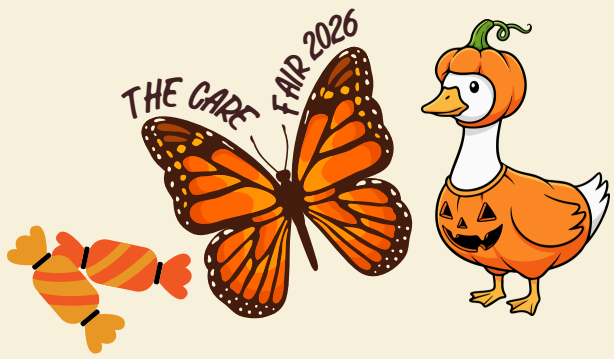
Taiko Performance 11:30a–12:30p

Joyful Grounds Cultural Series

Taiko is the Japanese word for drum and refers to the modern style of playing these drums. Wadaiko (in Japan) and kumi daiko (in North America) is movement infused, heart-pounding, dynamic group drumming. Think of it as a high energy performance art that combines music, dance, martial arts, athletics, and culture.

October 31

The CARE Fair! 9:00a–1:00p



Join us for our final market of the season alongside The Care Fair offering free food, water, clothing, harm reduction supplies & more. Plus some Halloween fun!